

2022 Student Scholarship Competition & Master Class

Sponsored by the Utah Baroque Ensemble

Open to all Utah County music students in grades 9-12.

Competition: The Competition is open to both vocal and instrumental artists from Utah County (or who are students of a music teacher living in Utah County) performing a Baroque period piece. Audition recordings in video format may be submitted online from February 1 through March 1, 2022. ($20 application fee) Finalists will be chosen based on these audition recordings.

Finalists will perform their Baroque piece in an adjudicated recital at the Orem Public Library on Wednesday evening March 23, 2022. One finalist will be awarded a $500 scholarship and will perform at the Utah Baroque Ensemble concert in Orem on Sunday evening April 24, 2022. Other performance opportunities may be available, and several other smaller scholarships will be awarded.

Elementary and junior high students are encouraged to apply by the same method and perform at the March 23 recital non-competitively.

If you have further questions about the competition, contact Leslie Ireland at scholarship.committee@utahbaroque.org

Master Class: Students are strongly encouraged to register for a Baroque Master Class to help prepare for the Competition. The class will be taught by Marcel Bowman and Monica Rosborough-Bowman on Monday February 28, 2022 3:00-6:00 p.m. at the Piano Gallery Recital Hall in Orem. NOTE: Registration for the Class ($20) also covers the entry fee for the Competition. Questions? Email Leslie Ireland at scholarship.committee@utahbaroque.org

Please go to www.utahbaroque.org for more detailed up-to-date information.

